

I urge your to refrain from allowing cell phone use aboard airborne aircraft. As a flight attendant of 32 years, currently holding the position of Purser on International flights I have experienced the worst in passenger behavior. Allowing personal cell phone use will only lead to conflict between passengers and another potential catalyst for "air rage".